

You see me
you watch me
telling you about things I know now
she came to me
she sent a light
there I was
blinded
I listened to the words
she said
the words
rained down upon me
I stood in the garden
between flowers and herbs and plants surrounded by my sisters she talked to me
only to me